RANKIN HINTS BILL TO RETURN TO CONFERENCE

Committee Agreement On $42 Base May Be Overturned In Roll Call

ALLOTMENT IS STUDIED

Exemptions For Family Men To Be Given Considerable Attention Soon

WASHINGTON, May 27—The issue of whether soldiers and sailors should be paid $50 or $42 a month comes to a showdown vote in the House today.

Action will be taken on a Senate-House conference committee agreement on a $42 base pay instead of the $50 per month approved by the lower chamber a week ago.

Facing administration leaders who favor the $42 figure was the parliamentary problem of preventing Rep. Rankin (D) Miss., from carrying out his announced determination to force a roll call vote and send the bill back to conference.

The House passed the measure with the Rankin amendment providing $50 for the lowest grade and $54 for first class privates and second class seamen by a roll call vote of 359 to 1. Rankin was confident that the members would not reverse themselves on a record vote.

Allowances Boosted

The bill increases pay of the lowest seven grades of enlisted men and of second lieutenants and ensigns and also boosts rental and other allowances for officers.

Meantime, the Senate military affairs committee put before the Senate a family allotment bill which revises the draft act to vest broad authority in the Selective Service administration to order exemptions of family men.

The bill grants authority to the Selective Service administration, through President Roosevelt, to order exemption on grounds of family relationship as well as financial dependency, and to establish classes of induction of men into the Army or Navy.

Committee members explained that under its terms draft headquarters would create a class of married men without children, (Continued on Page Two)

SOCK OF SOAP AIDS IN ESCAPE OF THREE MEN

ROCKVILLE, Md., May 27—A four state manhunt was being carried out today for three prisoners who escaped from the Montgomery county jail at Rockville last night after slugging a deputy warden with a sock full of soap.

The escaped prisoners were James Anthony Anderson, 17-year-old ex-reformatory inmate, who was to go on trial in Hagerstown, Md., Monday, charged with raping a 36-year-old government worker; Clifton Yokley, 23, formerly of Germantown, Md., being held for assault; and Andrew Foster, 21, a "trustee."

Deputy Warden Hugh Walker said that Foster had been cutting Yokley's hair. When he opened the cell door to let the "trustee" out Yokley grappled with him while Foster struck him with the improvised blackjack. Walker was dragged to Anderson's cell and locked inside. Anderson's cellmate, Thurman Rigdon, 46, of Louisville, Ky., attempted to take the "blackjack" from Foster and was knocked out.

The alarm was quickly spread to Washington, Virginia, West Virginia, and Pennsylvania where authorities began a search for the escaped prisoners.

Bridges To Take Hand In Un-American Probe; Mayor Rossi On 'Spot'

Refusal Of Union Men To Load Scrap Bound For Italy Recalled

SAN FRANCISCO, May 27—Promising sensational disclosures concerning an alleged tie-up between Rome propaganda and leaders of San Francisco's Italian colony, Harry Bridges, president of the International Longshoremen and Warehousemen's union, today prepared to testify before the state legislature committee investigating un-American activities in California.

In a letter to Chairman Jack B. Tenney, chairman of the committee, Bridges declared he wished to offer details about a dispute in which longshoremen had refused to load scrap iron bound for Italy to aid in the Italian campaign against Abyssinia.

"This scrap metal was brought down to the waterfront and for a period of two months San Francisco longshoremen refused to load it into ships because they disapproved not only of the Fascist regime but also the purpose to which the scrap was to be put," Bridges said in the letter.

"I was visited at my office by the Italian consul who assured me that the collection and shipment of the scrap metal was approved by the city administration and by Mayor Angelo J. Rossi himself."

Only a short time before Bridges offered to testify, Mayor Rossi had appeared before the committee to voice an emphatic denial of charges he had Fascist leanings. He termed efforts to bring his name before the committee as an attempt at "political assassination."

"Against me personally," Rossi said with tears in his eyes, "it is a smear campaign, pure and simple."

F. D. R., HERSHEY MAY CONFER ON LOW DRAFT AGE

WASHINGTON, May 27—A conference with President Roosevelt this week on the possibility of asking Congress to make youths 18 and 19 eligible for military service today faced Maj. Gen. Lewis Hershey, Selective Service director, on his return to the nation's capital.

Hershey was due back at his desk from Boston, where he made the statement that boys in this age group would have to be drafted to insure eventual victory for the United Nations.

While the chief executive declined to comment on Hershey's remarks, he did state at his press conference that he intended to call the Selective Service chief into conference in a few days to discuss a possible change in draft legislation.

Mr. Roosevelt emphasized that no recommendation had been made to him on the matter and that he has taken no position on the proposal to lower the active (Continued on Page Two)

400 POLES SHOT IN LITHUANIA IN GERMAN ACTION

LONDON, May 27—Reuters news agency reported from Stockholm today that 400 Poles were shot in Lithuania in reprisal for the slaying of two Germans.

Those shot in the mass execution were accused by the Germans of being "saboteurs and Communists."

An announcement in Berlin said that the two Nazis killed had been engaged in "rebuilding Lithuania."

The German statement said: "We will strike with ruthless harshness and even stronger measures will be taken if such bloody deeds are repeated. We cannot tolerate that unrest and nervousness should be spread by irresponsible elements in a country to which, thanks to the German army, is given a chance to work calmly on its own reconstruction."

NEW AXIS MOVE IN LIBYA SEEN

Enemy Offensive "Of Some Kind" Under Way; Scope Not Determined

LONDON, May 27—German Field Marshal Erwin Rommel has started a large-scale offensive in Libya, all London evening newspapers said today.

Earlier authoritative British quarters conceded that the renewed axis activity in Libya "obviously is an enemy offensive."

Reports from Cairo said that Rommel's tank forces were rumbling into action along a wide front but had not yet made contact with imperial defenders.

LONDON, May 27—Authoritative British circles said today that renewed axis activity in Libya "obviously is an enemy offensive of sorts."

It was suggested, however, that it is too early to speculate on the extent of the axis drive.

CAIRO, May 27—Indications of a possible German offensive in Libya were seen today in the communiqué of the British middle east command which reported that axis columns, including tank units, had made an eastward advance in some strength.

The axis advance did not reach the main positions of the imperial forces, but German Stuka bombers carried out dive-bombing attacks on forward British positions. Several of the Nazi craft were shot down.

Enemy air activity was said to be increasing also in areas to the rear of the British lines.

"Enemy columns, including tanks in some strength, yesterday advanced eastwards," the communiqué said. "By nightfall they had not reached our main positions."

"Stukas dive-bombed our forward troops. Several were shot down. Enemy air activity increased in our rear areas."

PRESBYTERIANS ASK F. D. TO HALT LIQUOR TRAFFIC

MILWAUKEE, May 27—The 154th general assembly of the Presbyterian church in the United States of America called on President Roosevelt today to stop the manufacture and sale of liquor during the war.

Wilbur Laroe Jr., attorney for the assembly, assailed the liquor traffic which he said amounts to $33,000,000 a year in Washington, D. C., alone. Other delegates favored even stronger action than taken, favoring a demand for a permanent prohibition law such as followed the first World War.

Empire Soldiers Believe End Of Inactivity May Come At Almost Any Time

LONDON, May 27—Preparations by the United States and Britain to perfect a major offensive against Germany were speeded today with the arrival in London of a score of additional ranking American military leaders, including Lieut. Gen. Brehon B. Somervell, commanding general of the services of supply.

Three brigadier generals, including L. Roy Lutes, Charles P. Gross and William C. Lee, were among Lieut. Gen. Somervell's party of about 20 officers.

The arrival of General Somervell and his staff immediately after the presence of America's air chiefs became known aroused widespread speculation on immediate United Nations efforts to open up a second front in Europe.

In London at the present moment are several of America's leading generals, including heads of the Army and Navy air services and experts on dive-bombing, tank warfare and infantry disposition.

Arrival of General Somervell close on the heels of other American Army and Navy chiefs so quickly after the departure of United States Chief of Staff George C. Marshall suggests that a major United States-British move is under way to put the final touches to plans for offensive operations on land and sea and in the air.

NELSON WANTS NATION TO WORK MEMORIAL DAY

WASHINGTON, May 27—WPB Chief Donald M. Nelson warned today that the nation could not afford "a lag in war production" due to Memorial Day shutdowns and urged the cancellation of any such holidays already scheduled in defense plants.

"The best way to celebrate Memorial Day in 1942 is to make it a day of fulltime production in every factory which is making war goods or essential articles for civilian use," Nelson said.

"We must honor the dead by doing all we can to sustain the living who are carrying on the fight for freedom all around the world," he declared.

ANOTHER FIGHT IN NORWAY MAY BE STAGED SOON

STOCKHOLM, May 27—German authorities have completed plans for a mass evacuation of the whole Norwegian coastal district in event of a United Nations invasion, reports reaching Stockholm said today.

ITALIANS PREPARE TO GRAB NICE AND ISLAND OF CORSICA

LONDON, May 27—Italian troops today were reported poised on the French frontier in preparation for an imminent move to occupy Nice and the island of Corsica.

Reports received by way of Switzerland said Rome diplomatic circles claim that Italy has the full support of Germany in pressing its claims to the French territory. Italy demanded Nice, Corsica and Tunis as its price for peace with France.

The Italians, it was said, are entitled to fulfillment of their demands, with Germany's blessings, since Italy is giving much aid to the Reich on the Russian front.

London heard that 300,000 Italian troops are massed in the provinces of Piedmont and Liguria in northeast Italy adjacent to the French frontier.

The Italians are expected to move into Nice and Corsica at any moment, the Daily Mail said in a dispatch from the French frontier.

ARMY JEEP MAY HELP FARMERS AT END OF WAR

WASHINGTON, May 27—The Army quarter-ton "jeep" may become a "plow horse" after the war.

The department of agriculture has been testing two Army "jeeps," or reconnaissance cars, at the tillage machinery laboratory at Auburn, Ala., to find out whether they could be used for farm work when peace returns.

The jeeps, according to the agriculture department, "could be highly useful as supplemental power for light plowing, other field work except cultivation of row crops, and for road use."

R. B. Gray, head of the farm mechanical equipment research bureau of the department's agricultural chemistry and engineering bureau explained that the Army jeep is "too low and too narrow for the usual row-crop cultivation jobs."

"Also," the department reported, "he thinks the jeep would perform better at farm work if it were changed to give it a slightly lower low gear ratio and a lower hitch for plowing."

It was explained that the jeep was tested in farm work in the first of several experiments to determine whether war machines can be used on domestic jobs after the war.

Jeeps, it was pointed out, will be made in great numbers, and "it is probable that they will be in surplus after the war."

Moscow Unit Cuts 40 Miles Behind Main Body To Kill 2,100 Foes

LONDON, May 27—Soviet troops have captured a key point in the German defenses on one sector of the Kharkov front, Exchange (British) telegraph company reported today from Moscow.

By JAMES E. BROWN
MOSCOW, May 27—Soviet troops drove furiously today to shatter the spearhead of a Nazi wedge on the Izyum front, 70 miles south of Kharkov, and latest dispatches from the front lines declared a general advance was in progress.

(Reuters news agency reported from Stockholm that Marshal Semyon Timoshenko's men had broken through the flank of the German wedge, cutting off the spearhead of the main Nazi thrust.)

With the Nazi diversionary drive thus brought to an abrupt halt, the principal Soviet advance regained momentum toward the pivotal Ukrainian city of Kharkov.

Russian troops were reported to have scored new advances in a number of places along the blood-drenched front.

At one point in the southern Ukraine, a Red cavalry unit penetrated 40 miles behind the enemy lines to kill 2,100 Germans.

On the Kharkov front the Russians were moving behind solidly massed tank herds, of from 20 to 30 tanks. It was reported that one gigantic tank battle lasted for two days without pause.

The enemy threw men and machines into the battle prodigally in an effort to break through in depth and encircle large Russian forces. The situation was extremely complicated until the Red soldiers frustrated an effort to sever their communications and hurled the Germans back.

The fluid character of the fighting was shown by a report that thousands of troops are locked in hand-to-hand fighting for the possession of single villages.

Counter Drive Success

Timoshenko's men stopped the Nazi drive on an important sector of the Izyum front and then successfully counter-attacked over a wide area to take the right bank of an unnamed river.

With tanks and heavy artillery barges preparing the way, the Russians took over the lower part of German-occupied heights and are now threatening the approaches to a village said to be several miles beyond a populated point captured a few days ago.

NELSON WANTS NATION TO WORK MEMORIAL DAY

WASHINGTON, May 27—WPB Chief Donald M. Nelson warned today that the nation could not afford "a lag in war production" due to Memorial Day shutdowns and urged the cancellation of any such holidays already scheduled in defense plants.

"The best way to celebrate Memorial Day in 1942 is to make it a day of fulltime production in every factory which is making war goods or essential articles for civilian use," Nelson said.

"We must honor the dead by doing all we can to sustain the living who are carrying on the fight for freedom all around the world," he declared.

ANOTHER FIGHT IN NORWAY MAY BE STAGED SOON

STOCKHOLM, May 27—German authorities have completed plans for a mass evacuation of the whole Norwegian coastal district in event of a United Nations invasion, reports reaching Stockholm said today.

The Germans were reported to be making a complete inventory of all housing facilities in eastern Norway.

Swedish press reports said: "There is a definite possibility that vast parts of the Norwegian coast again will become a battlefield."

ARSENAL WORK GOES ON RAVENNA, MAY 27—Shell-loading will go ahead on three shifts despite the Memorial day holiday on Saturday, officials of the Army arsenal at Ravenna said today.

A few workers will be granted the day off, but the three shifts will operate on schedule.

War Affects Tots' Clothes, Too

Buttons are replacing zippers in children's clothes, too, this year. Pictured wearing almost identical cotton gabardine snowsuits are Joan and Janet Lally, New York twins. Joan's inner jacket zips in and out, but Janet's, obeying the wartime conservation order, buttons in and out.

ITALIANS PREPARE TO GRAB NICE AND ISLAND OF CORSICA

LONDON, May 27—Italian troops today were reported poised on the French frontier in preparation for an imminent move to occupy Nice and the island of Corsica.

Reports received by way of Switzerland said Rome diplomatic circles claim that Italy has the full support of Germany in pressing its claims to the French territory. Italy demanded Nice, Corsica and Tunis as its price for peace with France.

The Italians, it was said, are entitled to fulfillment of their demands, with Germany's blessings, since Italy is giving much aid to the Reich on the Russian front.

London heard that 300,000 Italian troops are massed in the provinces of Piedmont and Liguria in northeast Italy adjacent to the French frontier.

The Italians are expected to move into Nice and Corsica at any moment, the Daily Mail said in a dispatch from the French frontier.

It was said that Vichy will flatly turn down a note sent by Italy demanding that the French cede the territories and that the Italian occupation can be expected immediately thereafter.

ARMY JEEP MAY HELP FARMERS AT END OF WAR

WASHINGTON, May 27—The Army quarter-ton "jeep" may become a "plow horse" after the war.

The department of agriculture has been testing two Army "jeeps," or reconnaissance cars, at the tillage machinery laboratory at Auburn, Ala., to find out whether they could be used for farm work when peace returns.

The jeeps, according to the agriculture department, "could be highly useful as supplemental power for light plowing, other field work except cultivation of row crops, and for road use."

R. B. Gray, head of the farm mechanical equipment research bureau of the department's agricultural chemistry and engineering bureau explained that the Army jeep is "too low and too narrow for the usual row-crop cultivation jobs."

"Also," the department reported, "he thinks the jeep would perform better at farm work if it were changed to give it a slightly lower low gear ratio and a lower hitch for plowing."

It was explained that the jeep was tested in farm work in the first of several experiments to determine whether war machines can be used on domestic jobs after the war.

Jeeps, it was pointed out, will be made in great numbers, and "it is probable that they will be in surplus after the war."

Moscow Unit Cuts 40 Miles Behind Main Body To Kill 2,100 Foes

LONDON, May 27—Soviet troops have captured a key point in the German defenses on one sector of the Kharkov front, Exchange (British) telegraph company reported today from Moscow.

By JAMES E. BROWN
MOSCOW, May 27—Soviet troops drove furiously today to shatter the spearhead of a Nazi wedge on the Izyum front, 70 miles south of Kharkov, and latest dispatches from the front lines declared a general advance was in progress.

(Reuters news agency reported from Stockholm that Marshal Semyon Timoshenko's men had broken through the flank of the German wedge, cutting off the spearhead of the main Nazi thrust.)

With the Nazi diversionary drive thus brought to an abrupt halt, the principal Soviet advance regained momentum toward the pivotal Ukrainian city of Kharkov.

Russian troops were reported to have scored new advances in a number of places along the blood-drenched front.

At one point in the southern Ukraine, a Red cavalry unit penetrated 40 miles behind the enemy lines to kill 2,100 Germans.

On the Kharkov front the Russians were moving behind solidly massed tank herds, of from 20 to 30 tanks. It was reported that one gigantic tank battle lasted for two days without pause.

The enemy threw men and machines into the battle prodigally in an effort to break through in depth and encircle large Russian forces. The situation was extremely complicated until the Red soldiers frustrated an effort to sever their communications and hurled the Germans back.

The fluid character of the fighting was shown by a report that thousands of troops are locked in hand-to-hand fighting for the possession of single villages.

Counter Drive Success

Timoshenko's men stopped the Nazi drive on an important sector of the Izyum front and then successfully counter-attacked over a wide area to take the right bank of an unnamed river.

With tanks and heavy artillery barges preparing the way, the Russians took over the lower part of German-occupied heights and are now threatening the approaches to a village said to be several miles beyond a populated point captured a few days ago.

CHICAGO BEAUTY ARRIVES TO START FILM CAREER, AND CARRIES BIKE TIRES

HOLLYWOOD, May 27—Stepping off the train with four new bicycle tires slung over one arm, Mary McGuire, 16-year-old Chicago beauty, arrived in Hollywood today to begin a screen career.

"I've got a movie contract," said the starlet, "but they won't pay me unless I report for work every day, and I might have to ride a bike to get there, so I brought my own tires."

CHILLICOTHE LANDLORDS MUST MAINTAIN RENTS

CHILLICOTHE, May 27—Chillicothe was one of 18 additional communities designated by the government as "defense-rental areas." Rents were ordered cut back to March 1 levels and landlords were given 60 days to meet the recommendation before the government steps in to enforce them.

War Bulletins

LONDON—Additional Canadian fighting forces were settling down in Britain today following arrival of a transport convoy. Canadian headquarters said the newly arrived troops included ordnance units, engineers and forestry troops.

RIO DE JANEIRO—A second axis submarine was reported today to have been bombed and sunk by United States naval patrol planes off the coast of Brazil. The second sub was said to have been sent to the bottom off the coast in the vicinity of Recife, almost 200 miles below the site where the first enemy undersea boat was reported sunk.

ROME — (By Official Italian Wireless)—The Italian high command reported today that Royal Air Force planes had bombed Messina on the northeast coast of Sicily. The RAF attacked the city in two waves, it was said. The Italians claimed that bombs damaged a cathedral.

LONDON—A strong force of Royal Air Force bombers today streaked across the channel coast in a southeasterly direction toward occupied Belgium.

SAN JUAN, P. R.—Consulates of Vichy France in Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands were closed today by the resignation of Consul General Robert Chaulet. Operation of the offices was transferred to the Vichy consulate in New York City.

cheered by such evidence of forthright action, is losing his look of anxiety in happy anticipation of the opening of a second front.

British soldiers likewise are happy at the prospect that their long period of inactivity possibly is coming to an end and that they will have an opportunity to get at grips with the axis forces shoulder to shoulder with American doughboys.

The official announcement of General Somervell's arrival said: "General Somervell arrived in the British Isles. He will consult with British officials on mutual problems relating to the Anglo-American war effort."

Lieut. Gen. Henry H. Arnold, chief of the United States Army air forces, and Rear Admiral John H. Towers, chief of the Navy bureau of aeronautics, arrived in London only 24 hours before General Somervell and his staff appeared.

These two chiefs of the American air services have been conferring with British officers of like rank since their arrival.

Armada Will Be Built By U. S.

LONDON, May 27.—A huge American air armada will be built up in Britain to operate under American command in close cooperation with the Royal Air Force, a high British official told International News Service today.

It was emphasized that the United States forces will operate separately from the point of view of both strategy and operations.

Meanwhile, it was emphasized that no immediate results should be expected from Lieut. Gen. Henry H. Arnold's visit, since it will take some time to build up the American forces to maximum strength. It was emphasized, however, that the process will be started soon.

It is believed the Americans first will be sent on operational missions over the channel ports such as Brest, Cherbourg and St. Nazaire before attempting any large-scale operations over Germany.

military age, now limited to men between 20 and 44.

Since the President set June 30 as the registration of youths 18 and 19, congressional sources have intimated that the Army and Navy soon may renew a request for legislative authority to draft this group.

High Army and Navy officials long have been in favor of calling the younger men to service, but when such a proposal was made to Congress in peacetime, it was turned down flatly. Legislators insisted that parental opposition was too great for such a move.

However, the Army and Navy for months have made every effort to recruit youths in this age group despite the fact that parental consent is required before enlistment.

The argument used by high-ranking military and naval officers is that youths between 18 and 28 make the best soldiers.

PERSONS STRICKEN WITH FEVER RECEIVE WARNING

Dr. A. D. Blackburn, county health physician, stating that the scarlet fever epidemic in Wayne township had come to a standstill, warned families under quarantine of the danger involved unless patients are kept confined to their beds.

Dr. Blackburn has made a study of all homes in the area and reports that he feels there will be no new cases. He also stated that this fever was hitting in a mild form and that people who have been quarantined should not use this as an excuse to get out too soon, for harmful injuries can result from even the mildest cases.

German air activity was reported weakening as the Nazi pilots dropped their hedge-hopping technique and contented themselves with dropping bombs from high altitudes. They specialized in incendiaries, setting villages afire as a guide to night bombing attacks.

PATRIOTIC BUGLER QUITS

TWIN FALLS, Ida.—Dr. Orrin Fuller, veteran of the first World War and now a bugler with the Twin Falls state guard unit, borrowed a bugle to practice, but put it down quickly when he noticed a startling inscription on the instrument. These were the words that caught his eyes: "U. S. regulation—Made in Japan." Dr. Fuller went looking for another bugle.

A one-cent-per-ton tax imposed by the national bituminous coal act brought $406,447 into the federal treasury in September.

Uncle Sam Gives Job To Women

Problem Of Salvage Major One; Many Things Around Home Available

Mrs. Circleville, here's one of your most important war jobs:

Save rubber, scrap metal, rags. Your son or husband or sweetheart or brother—YOUR soldier out there on the battle front — needs them.

Don't save excelsior, peach kernels, razor blades, bottle tops, old felt hats—not at present. Do not save any more paper. The shortage of paper no longer exists. The public has responded so splendidly that there is actually a surplus.

By all means save everything you have in rubber—tires, heels, hot water bottles, hose, jar rings, the dog's ball, the baby's teething ring, that old rubber elephant the darling once liked to play with, gloves, overshoes, bathing caps, raincoats.

Maybe you've already disposed of some of these things in your local salvage program. But more of them will accumulate in the attic and cellar and garage. Don't give away articles that you will have to replace immediately. Keep the things you really need and give the salvage folk the waste.

Keep metal, rubber and rags separate. Flatten out cartons and boxes. Tie in neat bundles, keep dry and clean.

Go to Manufacturers

As for rags—don't sort them. Put cotton, wool, silk and linen rags in the same bag. These rags will be turned over to various manufacturing concerns. The cotton rags, which most housewives used to regard as rather useless, are needed for wipers in machine shops.

All of this advice comes from Dan McClain, chairman of the Pickaway county salvage committee, who issued a strong appeal to the women of this community to help in the vitally important Salvage for Victory program.

The chairman has been requested by Robert O. Weible, executive secretary of the General Salvage program in Ohio, to name one or more local women as members of the local salvage committee.

"Housewives can do a great job in helping to get the scrap moving—and keep it moving," says Mr. Weible, who at the same time urges a friendly and tolerant attitude toward scrap dealers and other salvage collectors.

"Don't get mad at the junkman," he pleads. "He is the principal commercial channel for getting scrap back into war production. He's busier than he's ever been in his life, and don't get mad if he doesn't come the day he said he would."

"Don't get mad if the scrap seems to pile up too fast. Organize your home and family to deal with this new war situation. Let the children help."

"Don't get mad if you think there's a lot of red tape. If you can't follow general directions of your salvage committee, you will be helping to create a bottle neck. This in turn slows up the whole war program."

married men with one child or married men with several children, as well as to classify by age groups, and other induction in order.

Sen. Taft (R) Ohio, who urged establishment of categories for induction, said that "it is my impression that classifications based on dependency may be broadened in order to make for greater uniformity, but I doubt if they will go all the way at this time."

The proposal to broaden exemption power encountered opposition from some committee members.

ARMY STATIONS BEING CROWDED WITH RECRUITS

COLUMBUS, May 27 — Army recruiting stations in Columbus, where only men usually apply today, were swamped by young women, eager to apply for officers' training in the Women's Army Auxiliary corps.

After only two hours had passed, approximately 55 applications had been taken at the regular recruiting station and at the Fort Hayes station.

Several more, officials said, merely asked for information on Uncle Sam's first women's army.

CHICAGO, May 27—Arriving at the Army recruiting station more than three hours before its scheduled 7:30 a. m. opening, Miss Elizabeth Snekszer, 30, a hairdresser, was Chicago's first volunteer today in the newly authorized women's army auxiliary corps. She commented: "If women want to smoke and drink and share the privileges of men, they should share responsibilities and enlist."

NEW YORK, May 27—The Army recruiting officer's eyes popped today when a dark-haired beauty from Brooklyn stepped up to apply for a commission in the women's auxiliary army.

"Your name please," he asked. "Laughing Eyes," she replied, smiling as if to prove it. "I'm a full-blooded Creek Indian," she explained. "Don't you think I have more right to help my country than some of the others?"

Twenty-nine years old, Laughing Eyes is a graduate of the Haskell Indian institute and has a brother in the Navy.

WHEAT STORAGE BUILDING IS MADE BY CORPORATION

Stansbury-Stout corporation of Circleville is announcing construction of a new wheat storage building, the project being undertaken in an effort to help alleviate the apparent shortage of wheat storage space in Pickaway county.

Buildings are being constructed at the Circleville Lumber company and are on exhibit there. They have a double floor, interior lining, are built on skids, will hold 500 bushels of wheat and are approved by the AAA for storage.

The corporation declared Wednesday that the buildings can be easily converted into a broader house or general purpose farm building.

An advertisement appearing on Page 8 of Wednesday's Daily Herald further explains the project.

HAVE you ever thought how much a million dollars really is? Sure is an awful lot of nice things a fellow could do with a million dollars... if he had it. A million dollars is a lot of money.

Just think... it would take about three weeks, counting as fast as you could 24 hours a day, just to count up to a million.

I read in the paper the other day that the beer industry pays more than a million dollars a day in taxes... Federal, State and local. Every day... more than a million dollars.

I guess the government is glad to get that help these days, what with a war to win and pay for.

Of course, not all of that beer tax money goes to the Federal government. Quite a lot of it goes to the States and is used for such useful purposes as public health, emergency relief, old age assistance, education and public welfare.

Farmers surely ought to like the beer industry, too, from what I hear. Last year the brewers bought nearly two billion pounds of barley malt and nearly half a billion pounds of corn and corn products. And plenty of rice and hops, too. That's a lot of farm products.

If I hadn't gone in for this writing business, I think I'd like to have tried my hand at the brewing business.

I'd like to be making a fine tasting beverage that helps the public treasuries so much and that people can rightly call the "beverage of moderation." That moderation incidentally is another of the fine things about beer.

MOST AUTOISTS OBSERVE SLOW DRIVING ORDER

State Highway Patrol And Reporter Conduct Survey On Scioto Trail

ONLY FOUR ARE HALTED

No Good Reasons Advanced For Speed; Tire Saving Major Problem

By ROBERT VINCENT

Although about 90 percent of Ohio motorists now are driving less than 40 miles an hour to conserve tires as requested by President Roosevelt and Governor Bricker, the small minority still drives as it pleases without regard for the consequences, a survey conducted by the Ohio Highway Patrol reveals.

An International News Service reporter accompanied Patrolman Cliff Reich in a cruise down Route 23, south of Columbus, for about 20 miles. In that short round trip of about 40 miles, in which perhaps 75 to 100 cars were passed we stopped four—two pleasure cars, a motorcycle and a truck—and asked the drivers why they were driving faster than 50.

Not one of them had a legitimate reason.

Not one of them seemed to care that tires wear out at least a third more at 50 than they do at 40.

"The need for saving rubber just doesn't seem to percolate through their minds," said Reich. "Most drivers we stop just don't seem to give a darn. When we point out that they are wasting their tires, they just shrug and say, 'Well, when these are gone, I guess I'll just have to do without.'"

Circleville Man First

The first car stopped was driven by Raymond E. Arledge, of 818 Elm avenue, Circleville, at 62 miles an hour.

"I was just going home from work," he said. Reich released him after a lecture, and he thanked the patrolman and went on—at about 58 miles an hour.

The second person stopped, Billy B. Shaw, of Jackson, was charged with doing 52 miles an hour on his motorcycle.

"I guess my speed wasn't necessary," he admitted. "I was just going to Columbus to get a new chain for my motorcycle."

Asked if he didn't realize he was wearing out his tires, he stated:

"I guess they'll last as long as I do. I'm going to be drafted soon."

The third man, Hubert Puckett, of 157 Watt street, Circleville, also was doing 52, according to the patrol car's speedometer.

"I haven't a thing to say," he said. "I was just going to Columbus to do a bit of shopping. I'll keep my speed down in the future, though."

Finally we nailed a truck doing about 50 miles an hour. Its driver, Harry Justus of Columbus, was delivering sand to a new war project under construction.

"I was just getting a run for the hill," he said. "We got orders to drive about 35. But we got such a heck of a lot of work to do, and so little time to do it in..."

Another cruiser, going east of the National Highway, USR-40, stopped only three cars in its 50-mile round trip, and two of them were from other states. Patrolman Curt Poulton said that two of the drivers had no excuse for fast

Think Farmer Doesn't Have Job In War Effort?: Read These Figures

Pickaway county being largely an agricultural area with defense industries centralizing in other larger cities recently has raised the question of what this area can produce for direct use in national defense. Farmers cannot make battleships or airplanes nor can the smoking industries of Columbus and other cities produce food.

Recently figures released by the government in respect to the amount of farm products that the Army will need in 1942 and it's astounding to see the immensity of the farm program in plans of national leaders for an Army that will bring ultimate victory. Pickaway county is recognized as one of the best areas for general farming in the entire nation and here's the program that local farmers will have to help meet this year.

During 1942 United States farms must produce 56,818,182-driving, although Leota Greene, of Columbus, was returning to the Capital City at a modest 45 so that her husband could get back to work in a Columbus War industry. She said she would not have exceeded the 40-mile limit asked by Governor Bricker except for her husband's work.

Conducted in conjunction with the "Stop Them Above 40" campaign was a demonstration of just how little time high speeds save. Four cars left Columbus in four directions, driven by expert drivers with instructions to drive as fast as conditions would permit. Four other cars left at the same time, with orders to stay below 40. All were to go on 50-mile trips.

The cars driven at highest speeds took an average of about one hour and 20 minutes for the round trips, including some city driving. The cars driven slower than 40 and obeying all traffic regulations averaged about an hour and 45 minutes.

The difference for 50 miles was about 25 minutes. But gas consumption in the high speed cars was 40 percent greater; tire wear nearly twice as much, the highway garage reported.

000 quarts of milk; 45,869,004,000 eggs; 18,600,000,000 pounds of beef; 19,891,581,000 pounds of pork; 2,040,000,000 pounds of beans; 23,613,678,000 pounds of potatoes; 912,000,000 cans of peas; 5,800,000,000 cans of tomatoes; 3,973,117,000 pounds of peanuts; 9,860,000,000 pounds of shell eggs; and unlimited supplies of wheat, corn and other essentials. When one looks at such figures he realizes the huge burden that is thrust on the shoulders of a rural community like Pickaway county.

King Brothers Circus, showing on the Hulise lot, South Court street, was one of the most interesting shows to appear in Circleville in several years. The circus attracted a fair-sized crowd in the afternoon, and the big top was crowded for the night performance.

Numerous outstanding acts were offered during the show, all of which received much applause from the crowd. An elephant act in which a performer remained on his back while the big fellow stepped over him was a thriller. There were many other acts of equal interest.

Circus management was host to carriers of The Daily Herald.

Employees of Purina Company Conduct Dance

More Than 120 At Memorial Hall Function

More than 120 persons were entertained Tuesday at the delightful dance in Memorial hall sponsored by the Circleville plant of the Ralston-Purina company for employees and friends. The dance was one of the three large social affairs arranged yearly, a Summer picnic and a Christmas party completing the company entertainment program.

Howdy Gorman and his "Say It With Music" orchestra played for the dancing, beginning at 9 p. m. and continuing until midnight.

Red, white and blue crepe paper formed the false ceiling and decorated the band shell, the patriotic theme making a colorful setting for the highly successful party. Lovely arrangements of syringas were additional features of the decorations.

Miss Margie Merz, Miss Dorothy Fausnaugh, John Styers, Chester Starkey, Harold Allen and Boyd Horn were members of the committee who planned the affair.

Mrs. Parker had 247 named varieties of iris, 62 named varieties of peonies and 16 named varieties of poppies besides many fine shrubs and perennials in her garden.

Accompanied by Mrs. Fenton, the garden of Miss Marian Franklin who features iris in her plantings was next visited. Others were that of Dr. Charles Mills who has made his garden a haven for birds which come from everywhere for feed at the sound of a bell; the formal garden of Mrs. Traquair on Bell's Hill, her pool and rock garden, gorgeous rose garden and very practical vegetable garden; Mrs. Albert Spetnagel's sunken garden and lovely yard surrounding her quaint cottage and the beautiful hillside garden of Mrs. Al Mahrt with an especially fine shrine.

BERGEN-MORRIS

Edgar Bergen is taking a terrific kidding from Film Actor Chester Morris on his legedmain proclivities. Both Morris and Bergen spend every waking moment trying out new tricks of magic. At a recent dinner, both wanted to do an intricate goldfish trick. They tossed up, and Bergen won. He actually lost, however, because when it came time to do the trick he became slightly confused, waved his magic wand—and nothing happened. Morris rushed to the aid of his pal, however, and between the two of them, the goldfish were produced. As far as the audience was concerned, it is strictly a two-man trick.

Employees of Purina Company Conduct Dance

More Than 120 At Memorial Hall Function

More than 120 persons were entertained Tuesday at the delightful dance in Memorial hall sponsored by the Circleville plant of the Ralston-Purina company for employees and friends. The dance was one of the three large social affairs arranged yearly, a Summer picnic and a Christmas party completing the company entertainment program.

Howdy Gorman and his 'Say It With Music' orchestra played for the dancing, beginning at 9 p. m. and continuing until midnight.

Red, white and blue crepe paper formed the false ceiling and decorated the band shell, the patriotic theme making a colorful setting for the highly successful party. Lovely arrangements of syringas were additional features of the decorations.

Miss Margie Merz, Miss Dorothy Fausnaugh, John Styers, Chester Starkey, Harold Allen and Boyd Horn were members of the committee who planned the affair.

Garden Tour

Twenty-one members of the Pickaway County Garden club enjoyed a delightful tour of Chilli-cothe gardens Tuesday, the plans for the afternoon being made by Mrs. Marshall Fenton of Chilli-cothe, regional director of garden clubs. Each garden visited was beautiful in itself and each was quite different in planning from the others.

Club members on the tour were Miss Ruth Morris, Mrs. Dick Jones, Mrs. Turney Pontius, Mrs. Clarence McAbee, Mrs. A. J. Lyle, Mrs. Frank Marion, Miss Virginia Marion, Mrs. Carl Hunter, Mrs. Robert Brehmer, Mrs. G. I. Nickerson, Mrs. E. S. Shane, Mrs. James Carpenter, Mrs. Ella Hornbeck, Mrs. George Steeley, Mrs. F. K. Blair, Mrs. Clyde Cook, Mrs. Fred Cook, Mrs. John Bolender, Mrs. John Mast, Mrs. E. S. Neuding and Mrs. Mary A. Kibler.

The group left Circleville at 12:30 p. m. and were met by Mrs. Fenton at the garden of Mrs. Trimble Parker, off route 104 on the Clarksburg pike. Mrs. Parker had 247 named varieties of iris, 62 named varieties of peonies and 16 named varieties of poppies besides many fine shrubs and perennials in her garden.

Accompanied by Mrs. Fenton, the garden of Miss Marian Franklin who features iris in her plantings was next visited. Others were that of Dr. Charles Mills who has made his garden a haven for birds which come from everywhere for feed at the sound of a bell; the formal garden of Mrs. Traquair on Bell's Hill, her pool and rock garden, gorgeous rose garden and very practical vegetable garden; Mrs. Albert Spetnagel's sunken garden and lovely yard surrounding her quaint cottage and the beautiful hillside garden of Mrs. Al Mahrt with an especially fine shrine.

O.E.S.

Mrs. James Cook, general chairman of Poppy Day of the American Legion auxiliary, reported more than 1,000 poppies sold before 11:30 a. m. Saturday. The sale of 1,000 exhausted the supply.

Report of the very successful sale was made Tuesday at the regular meeting in the Post room of Memorial hall. Plans were made to purchase a $100 Defense bond this week, which will be the second purchased by the auxiliary.

Mrs. William Hegele conducted the formal ritualistic opening and business hour. Committee chairman reported on the result of lunches served at recent dances. The auxiliary voted a donation of $5 to purchase equipment for the local Red Cross chapter.

The Defense program planned for the evening was in charge of Mrs. Fannie Brooks, AAA county fieldwoman. Ruth Brooks, Dane Mounts, Eugene Thompson and Martha Jane Thompson made up the cast presenting "There is a Glory," a defense playlet.

Sorosis Club

Spring flowers in profusion decorated the home of Mrs. Adrian McVey of Williamsport when the Sorosis club of that community met Tuesday for its regular session. Eighteen members were present, Mrs. Della Smith, Mrs. Charles Garrison, Mrs. C. W. Hays, Mrs. T. B. Gephart, Mrs. Joseph Varney and Mrs. Marvin Cook being guests for the evening.

Star Grange

Sixty-five members were present at the Tuesday meeting of Star grange in Monroe school auditorium, Mr. and Mrs. Ovid Clark having the first and second degrees conferred on them during the evening.

C. M. Reid, worthy master, was in charge of the ritualistic opening ceremony and the grange degree team conferred the degrees. Refreshments were served by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McKinley, sons Gall and Dale, and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Phillips and son, Richard.

BERGEN-MORRIS

Edgar Bergen is taking a terrific kidding from Film Actor Chester Morris on his legerdemain proclivities. Both Morris and Bergen spend every waking moment trying out new tricks of magic. At a recent dinner, both wanted to do an intricate goldfish trick. They tossed up, and Bergen won. He actually lost, however, because when it came time to do the trick he became slightly confused, wavered his magic wand—and nothing happened. Morris rushed to the aid of his pal, however, and between the two of them, the goldfish were produced. As far as the audience was concerned, it was strictly a two-man trick.

TO HOUSE HOUNDS

Milton Berle says that several swanky Hollywood night clubs are building kennels to house autograph hounds on cold nights.

RADIO BRIEFS

The gas rationing has hit Bess Johnson, the radio actress, pretty hard. She lives about 13 miles from the studio where her NBC morning serial, "The Story of Bess Johnson," emanates, and she has to be there at eight o'clock! If she is deprived of her car, it means that she must first take a long bus ride and then an hour subway trip, but Bess, who on her program has been plugging cooperation with the government, applied for an A card—just enough to do the family marketing!

When Maestro Phil Spitalny retires to the control room to check orchestral balance at "Hour of Charm" rehearsals, the orchestra becomes really an all-girl organization. In his absence, Evelyn, concert-mistress, conducts the band.

Dennis Day, tenor star of the Jack Benny broadcasts, returns to his "home town" this Summer for personal appearances while the Benny program vacations from NBC for the hot months. New York is the home town in question and Dennis will open on Broadway the first week in June.

Edward G. Robinson's "Big Town" series, which formerly vacationed in the Summer time, will stick through the dog days this season. Another report says that Edgar Bergen, previously reported going off the air for the warm weather, may stay around after all but the latter plan is by no means definite.

While making a large part of Europe his news "beat" before the outbreak of war, Ed Murrow once chartered a 23-passenger plane as sole passenger in order to reach Vienna in time to describe the 1938 Anschluss.

Since school has "closed up shop" for the Summer vacation meet quite a few of the youngsters here and there not quite certain what to do with themselves. Among these are a number of friendly ones, willing to tell us all about it. One 13-year-old lad of Commercial Point said that his father had a good job in the city, but that he intended to earn his own spending money running a tractor on the farm. Told us too, about the Williams donkey ball teams, two out playing games and one held in reserve at Commercial Point, the home. Which reminds us that just the other day, some one said he was thinking strong of starting an Uncle Tom show and as the Simon Legree himself, he had several Toms in mind for the part and he sure would lay it on hot. And not naming 'em right out, he had in mind several who'd fit in good as Topsy.

Four additional youngsters, Jerry and Billy Trego, James Ward and Harold Bickel, were annexed to the Boy Scout troop here Tuesday evening at the Community Club room. The "Flying Eagles" as they have named themselves, take their test at cooking for 2nd class advancement, the place named by Rev. Dwight Woodworth, the instructor. The troop will be in charge of the flag raising at South Bloomfield cemetery as a part of the exercises there on Memorial day. Five additional lads will become members of the troop at the next meeting held Tuesday evening, June 2.

The Community club will be in session at the club room this Friday evening at 8:30 o'clock. There are plenty of things on for attention and members are asked to be present.

Wayne Brown, Madison township, was here Tuesday annexing additional names to his petition as a candidate for county commissioner. Expects to file same with county election board.

The WPA orchestra and stage show at the park play house yesterday evening was quite successful, even though Old Jude did pull the rain stoppers out for awhile. Another Fresh Air show is dated for tomorrow evening, Monday, June 1, is named as all out junk collecting day with full force in action.

Mrs. William Weeks, the former Bessie Hoy and daughter of Monroe Hoy, is critically ill at her home in Columbus. The Hoyes were former residents of Ashville.

The first class in the ladies school of nursing and composed of twenty members, held session one at the school building yesterday afternoon with Mrs. William Fischer Jr., instructor. Two more classes of 20 members each, are in the waiting list. Mrs. Sam Cloud is the other teacher. Both these named are graduate nurses.

With May with us and the big races like the Derby and the Preakness, it is fitting to recall the wisdom of the Shah of Persia. Declining to attend an English horse race, he said: "It is already known to me that one horse is faster than another."

Nation's Finest Golf Stars Tangle in PGA

By LAWTON CARVER
SEAVIEW COUNTRY CLUB, ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., May 27
—Two corporals, a sailor-to-be as of next week, and 29 citizens without ensignia today went out in earnest pursuit of the National Professional Golf championship, last major title to be laid on the line for the duration of the war.

The preliminary gestures contained in the qualifying round are over now, and from here on out through next Sunday it will be 36 holes of match play daily.

One of the corporals in the field is Vic Ghezzi, of Fort Monmouth, the defending champion, an automatic qualifier. The other is Jim Turnesa of Fort Dix, while the budding seaman is slammim' Samuel Jackson Snead, all still on the firing line and now drawing a bead in man-to-man combat with the end of medal play.

Today's program among the 32 who made the grade into match play called for these contests:

UPPER HALF — Ghezzi vs. Jimmy Demaret; Bruce Coltart vs. Tommy Harmon, Craig Wood vs. Rod Munday, Leland Gibson vs. Jim Gaunt, Sam Byrd vs. Sam Snead, Willie Goggin vs. Eddie Burke, Ed Dudley vs. Denny Shute and Tony Penna vs. Jimmy Hines.

LOWER HALF — Harry Cooper, the medalist, vs. Mike Turnesa, Lloyd Mangrum vs. Dick Metz, Nelson vs. Harry Nettleblatt, Jimmy Thomson vs. Joe Kirkwood, Jim Turnesa vs. Dutch Harrison, Jug McSpaden vs. Sam Parks, Ben Hogan vs. Ben Loving and Ky Laffoon vs. Vic Bass.

The lower half of the draw is the one loaded with fire works. Down in there are the bald, veteran Cooper, who has been threatening in major championships for years, and who yesterday came within two strokes of the P.G.A. medal record when he finished qualifying with 67-71-138; Nelson, the redhot choice to win the tournament, and Hogan, the second choice.

As it is, there can be no repetition of the Nelson-Hogan finals becoming so prevalent, inasmuch as they will encounter each other sooner or later enroute, barring a knocking off of either or both in the meantime.

YANKEES DRIVE AHEAD; PUNCH MAJOR FACTOR

No Team In League Looks Strong Enough To Put Skids Under Champs

By International News Service
Who or what human force is going to stop those Yankees?

That's what baseball fans were asking today as the New Yorkers prepared to continue their power assault against the poor seventh place Athletics at the Yankee stadium. Victors in 15 of their last 18 games, following yesterday's assault and battery which saw them sweep a two game series with a 9 to 2 conquest of the Boston Red Sox, it was hard to determine just when the bombers would relax and take things easy.

Three homers in the first five innings just about took care of Mr. Joseph Cronin. Two of them, by Tommy Henrich and Charley Keller, came in the very first inning, each with a mate on the sacks.

These blows not only embarrassed Joe Dobson, the Sox's leading pitcher, so much he took an exit at the end of the frame but also put a large "4" on the center field scoreboard and gave Atley Donald, on the hill for the New Yorkers, a much better working margin than he actually needed.

The only other afternoon game on the schedule in the American league saw the Senators wallop the A's 8 to 3. Steve Sundra, though socked for 11 hits, scattered them well enough.

The Cleveland Indians produced a pair of ninth inning rallies to topple the Chicago White Sox, 2 to 1, last night and halt a five game losing streak. Mel Harder, pitching his first game with the aid of spectacles, doled out seven scattered hits with Edgar Smith, the Sox southpaw, limited the Indians to six with two coming in the fateful inning.

In another ar light game the Detroit Tigers scored a 3 to 1 win over the St. Louis Browns behind the four hit pitching, of Al Benton. Eric McNair's homer in the fifth proved to be the victory run though the Tigers added another unearned tally in the seventh.

There were only two games scheduled in the National league,

the Boston Braves picking up a half game on the idle Dodgers by beating the Giants, 4 to 2 to sweep their two game series.

Al Javery held the Giants to six hits in this one, which saw the Braves beat big Cliff Melton for the first time in more than two years.

In the other contest the Cardinals managed to eke out a 3 to 1 verdict over the Cubs in Chicago.

CHICAGO, May 27—With its pass gate padlocked, Wrigley field, home of the Chicago Cubs, opened its pay gates today to a crowd that promised to be the largest of the season. All receipts will go to the Army and Navy relief societies.

Two games were on the bill, with the Great Lakes naval training station and Camp Grant to meet in the opener and the Cubs and Cincinnati Reds to engage in their regularly scheduled game in the nightcap.

Attendance at Wrigley field has been light this season, the biggest crowd being 11,000 on opening day. General Manager James T. Gallagher said he had no doubt this mark would be eclipsed.

Everyone lined up at the ticket windows today, including the players themselves. Also paying their way in were umpires, ushers, radio broadcasters, newspapermen and everyone else who ordinarily gains entrance on a pass.

MURPHY WINS HONOR AT WEST POINT CEREMONY

WEST POINT, N. Y., May 27 — The Army Athletic association trophy to the graduating cadet voted as rendering the "most valuable service to athletics" was presented today to Raymond F. Murphy of Anaconda, Montana.

Murphy also received the Edgerton trophy awarded annually to the outgoing football captain.

The awards were presented by Major General Francis B. Wilby, superintendent of the U. S. Military Academy, during the traditional athletic review this morning.

Besides Murphy, 41 other cadets, most of them team captains, received individual and team awards.

8,000 EXPECTED TO SEE SHRINE NIGHT BALL GAME

COLUMBUS, May 27—A crowd of some 8,000 was anticipated for tonight's Columbus-Minneapolis game in Red Bird Stadium. The occasion is the fourth annual Shrine Night with proceeds of the contest going to the Shriner's fund for crippled children.

Last night's game, as well as all other American Association games, were postponed because of weather conditions.

Since school has "closed up shop" for the summer vacation meet quite a few of the youngsters here and there not quite certain what to do with themselves. Among these are a number of friendly ones, willing to tell us all about it. One 13-year-old lad of Commercial Point said that his father had a good job in the city, but that he intended to earn his own spending money running a tractor on the farm. Told us too, about the Williams donkey ball teams, two out playing games and one held in reserve at Commercial Point, the home. Which reminds us that just the other day, some one said he was thinking strong of starting an Uncle Tom show and as the Simon Legree himself, he had several Toms in mind for the part and he sure would lay it on hot. And not naming 'em right out, he had in mind several who'd fit in good as Topsy.

Nation's Finest Golf Stars Tangle in PGA

By LAWTON CARVER

SEASIDE COUNTRY CLUB, ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., May 27

—Two corporals, a sailor-to-be as of next week, and 29 citizens without ensignia today went out in earnest pursuit of the National Professional Golf championship, last major title to be laid on the line for the duration of the war.

The preliminary gestures contained in the qualifying round are over now, and from here on out through next Sunday it will be 36 holes of match play daily.

One of the corporals in the field is Vic Ghezzi, of Fort Monmouth, the defending champion, an automatic qualifier. The other is Jim Turnesa of Fort Dix, while the budding seaman is slamm'n' Samuel Jackson Snead, all still on the firing line and now drawing a head in man-to-man combat with the end of medal play.

Today's program among the 32 who made the grade into match play called for these contests:

UPPER HALF — Ghezzi vs. Jimmy Demaret; Bruce Coltart vs. Tommy Harmon, Craig Wood vs. Rod Munday, Leland Gibson vs. Jim Gaunt, Sam Byrd vs. Sam Snead, Willie Goggin vs. Eddie Burke, Ed Dudley vs. Denny Shute and Tony Penna vs. Jimmy Hines.

LOWER HALF — Harry Cooper, the medalist, vs. Mike Turnesa, Lloyd Mangrum vs. Dick Metz, Nelson vs. Harry Nettleblatt, Jimmy Thomson vs. Joe Kirkwood, Jim Turnesa vs. Dutch Harrison, Jug McSpaden vs. Sam Parks, Ben Hogan vs. Ben Loving and Ky Laffoon vs. Vic Bass.

The lower half of the draw is the one loaded with fire works.

Down in there are the bald, veteran Cooper, who has been threatening in major championships for years, and who yesterday came within two strokes of the P.G.A. medal record when he finished qualifying with 67-71-138; Nelson, the redhot choice to win the tournament, and Hogan, the second choice.

As it is, there can be no repetition of the Nelson-Hogan finals becoming so prevalent, inasmuch as they will encounter each other sooner or later enroute, barring a knocking off of either or both in the meantime.

Who or what human force is going to stop those Yankees?

That's what baseball fans were asking today as the New Yorkers prepared to continue their power assault against the poor seventh place Athletics at the Yankee stadium. Victors in 15 of their last 18 games, following yesterday's assault and battery which saw them sweep a two game series with a 9 to 2 conquest of the Boston Red Sox, it was hard to determine just when the bombers would relax and take things easy.

Three homers in the first five innings just about took care of Mr. Joseph Cronin. Two of them, by Tommy Henrich and Charley Keller, came in the very first inning, each with a mate on the sacks.

These blows not only embarrassed Joe Dobson, the Sox's leading pitcher, so much he took an exit at the end of the frame but also put a large "4" on the center field scoreboard and gave Atley Donald, on the hill for the New Yorkers, a much better working margin than he actually needed.

The only other afternoon game on the schedule in the American league saw the Senators wallop the A's 8 to 3. Steve Sundra, though soaked for 11 hits, scattered them well enough.

The Cleveland Indians produced a pair of ninth inning rallies to topple the Chicago White Sox, 2 to 1, last night and halt a five game losing streak. Mel Harder, pitching his first game with the aid of spectacles, doled out seven scattered hits with Edgar Smith, the Sox southpaw, limited the Indians to six with two coming in the fateful inning.

In another light game the Detroit Tigers scored a 3 to 1 win over the St. Louis Browns behind the four hit pitching, of Al Benton. Eric McNair's homer in the fifth proved to be the victory run though the Tigers added another unearned tally in the seventh.

There were only two games scheduled in the National league,

the Boston Braves picking up a half game on the idle Dodgers by beating the Giants, 4 to 2 to sweep their two game series.

Al Javery held the Giants to six hits in this one, which saw the Braves beat big Cliff Melton for the first time in more than two years.

In the other contest the Cardinals managed to eke out a 3 to 1 verdict over the Cubs in Chicago.

By Paul Turner
An outstanding success is the only term applicable to the charter meeting of the Circleville Junior Chamber of Commerce held Tuesday evening at the Pickaway Country Club. With a one hundred percent attendance of the club's 33 members and a large number of prospective participants present, the total gathering numbered 84.

Main event of the program was the presentation to the club of a national charter by Robert Denmead, vice-president of the state organization. In presenting the charter Denmead announced that this was the fifty-fourth junior club in the state and the best turn-out for a meeting of this type that he had ever seen in his years with the movement.

James Yost, president of the local group, accepted the document and presented George Cameron, vice-president of the United States Junior Chamber of Commerce and Ohio's candidate for the presidency at the coming election in July. Mr. Cameron discussed in great detail the functioning of a junior civic organization in any community stating that the sole aim of the Junior Chamber movement is to serve the community in which it exists.

This chamber is open to any young men between the ages of 21 and 35 in an effort to instigate a feeling among the younger group to take an independent place in the civic welfare of the city. Leadership is the main theme behind this group of young men and, according to Mr. Cameron, this issue will be of prime importance after the present conflict is over.

Dreisbach In Charge
Robert Dreisbach, president of the Jaycee club in Chillicothe and instrumental in the formation of Circleville's club, had charge of the evening's program which was greeted with great approval.
Mayor Ben Gordon; Harry Heffner, president of the Rotary club; Herschel Hill, president of the Kiwanis club; A. V. Osborn, president of the senior Chamber of Commerce; Mack Parrett, secretary of the senior group; and many visitors from Columbus and Chillicothe clubs attended the meeting.

Circleville's Junior Chamber of Commerce was organized just recently and it will soon be expanded to be one of the largest civic organizations in the community. Meeting on the second and fourth Tuesday of each month the club has already received acclaim for its project of a Victory Booth on Court and Main streets each Saturday. In two days of operation the booth has netted more than $950 in War Bond sales. Various other projects to benefit the people of Circleville are being planned by the group and will be announced in the near future.

Charter members of the organization are James Yost, president; Sheldon Mader, first vice-president; Richard Williamson, second vice-president; Robert Hemphill, secretary; Fred Grant, treasurer; Glenn Skinner, state director; Roger Vega, Joseph Brink, Harold Clifton, Robert Hedges, John Robinson and Forrest Storts (all members of the board of trustees) and Gail Barthelmas, Eugene Barthelmas, T. S. Dennis, Charles Glitt, William Gray, John Heiskell, Herbert Hammel, Jack Joy, Clarence Leonard, Oakley Warner, Leo McClure, Hubert Puckett, Charles Goeller, Lewis Cook, Carroll Morgan, Robert Timmons, Wendell Turner, Glenn Whinnery, Wilson Wood, LaVerne Scranton and Cary Shasteen.

Next meeting of the Jaycees will be June 9 with club officials expecting to increase membership at that time.

INFORMATION ON TIRE AND TUBE QUOTAS BANNED

State Rationing Administrator Harry T. Beckman has issued orders prohibiting county coordinators and local rationing boards from releasing to the press or the public any information on county tire and tube quotas.

Beckman's order followed a communication from John E. Hamm, senior deputy administrator of the Office of Price Administration, who said that announcements covering tire and tube quotas by county coordinators and local rationing boards had served only to confuse the public.

Hamm in his letter to Beckman said:

"We are fully conscious of our responsibility in keeping the people of your state, and the rest of the country, informed about the rationing program. Such information is released continually by our office or where desirable is sent to you as information which may be made public. All other data, however, is confidential and should not be made public."

"This office makes available to the press and the public national and state quotas; however, county quotas are not publicly released by this office, nor are they sent to you as information which may be made public."

"The rationing administrators and local boards are prohibited, therefore, from releasing to the press or the public any information on county quotas."

ture, the President seemed disturbed about something.

"Shall we pose with or without our coats on?" he asked, as the photographers were focusing their cameras.

Stambaugh, taking this as a hint, immediately began to peel his coat off.

"No—wait a minute," said the President, and then added with a grin, "Have you by any chance got on suspenders?"

"Why, er, yes, I have," replied Stambaugh, somewhat baffled. "In that case, I'll put my coat on," said the President. "We'll both wear them. It will make a better picture."

Any member of the American Legion will tell you that Lynn Stambaugh, who hails from Fargo, North Dakota, and has been doing an outstanding job as National Commander, is quick on the uptake. In a flash, he sized up the situation.

Caressing a slightly protuberant waistline, the Legionnaire chuckled and replied, "Just as you say, Mr. President."

Note: The President warmly complimented Stambaugh on the Legion's work in training air raid wardens and its highly successful house-to-house war bond campaign, which already has netted over $100,000,000 in purchases.

ROYALTY ON TOUR

Crown Princess Martha of Norway has only one white hand. The other is blue from shaking hands with 3,000 Norwegian-Americans in Minneapolis. This equals the best Eleanor Roosevelt records.

The Crown Princess accompanied Crown Prince Olav in a whirlwind tour to carry the message of Norway to the U.S.A. In a series of one-night stands, they covered 21 cities in 22 days, and the Crown Prince spoke 50 times.

Whenever the Princess was called upon, she said, "My husband does the talking for the family."

Like a pair of one-night-standers, the Prince and Princess jumped from city to city, spending only five nights in hotels, the others in sleeping cars. They were on display constantly, the Prince wearing the field uniform of a general, with high boots, and a high collar decorated by three silver stars on a gold band.

At Tacoma, Wash., the Prince finished speaking at 8:35 dashed out to catch an 8:40 train. The police commissioner ordered all lights turned red, stopping traffic in the entire city, while the Prince raced to the train. He made it.

At Portland, Ore., Lt. Gen. William S. Knudsen dropped out of the skies in an Army transport, and Princess Martha, whose aunt is the Queen of Denmark, greeted him in Danish. Then Knudsen and the Prince and Princess went into the airport for a soda pop.

When the royal Norwegians were having their hands pumped blue in Minneapolis, a Norwegian woman asked the Prince what she could do to help Norway. "The best way to help Norway," said Prince Olav, "is to help the United States."

WEAVER POSTS $50

Clyde Weaver, East Corwin street, was arrested Tuesday evening by Circleville police on a charge of operating a numbers racket. He posted $50 bond pending hearing of the case.

SALVAGE DRIVE TO BE STAGED NEXT MONDAY

Pickaway county's salvage drive will be held June 1 as planned with many local trucks being obtained for the war drive. Committee in charge of the arrangements has expressed a need for more volunteers to accompany these trucks on their collection tours through this area next Monday. Anyone wishing to aid the program in this way should contact Herman Hill.

Many other Ohio communities have brought their scrap drives to very successful conclusions and it is anticipated that the local effort will bring forth several tons of metals of all types, rags, rubber, and many other articles that are of no value to an individual, but of extreme importance in the defense program.

Persons in the county will be paid for their supply of scrap when it is collected Monday and everyone has been asked to locate his material and have it convenient for collection when the drive is made.

LEGION TO MEET

Howard Hall Post of the American Legion will hold its bi-monthly meeting Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock in Memorial hall. All members have been asked to attend the business session that will be devoted to discussion of plans for the Memorial day program, Saturday. Special caps and other equipment for the legion's police force will also be distributed at this time.

STANDARD FIRST AID TO BE GIVEN IN NEW CLASS

An afternoon class in standard first aid, covering a 20-hour course, will be started about June 9 under Mrs. Donald Watt. Registration for this class will be taken at Red Cross headquarters, Wilkes building, West Main street, beginning June 2.

Registration days will be June 2, 4 and 6.

The class will be conducted Tuesday and Thursday afternoons for two hours.

FARM SURVEY TO LEARN FOOD PROGRAM TO BEGIN

COLUMBUS, May 27—A comprehensive survey of every farm in Ohio to determine progress of the food-for-freedom program will begin tomorrow, State AAA Chairman Elmer F. Kruse announced today. The inquiry will be conducted by 6,000 committeemen and may take as long as six weeks.

"We cannot afford to gamble with production of war goods," said Kruse. "The survey will enable us to determine if 1942 goals will be met and it will assist the department of agriculture greatly in setting up 1943 goals."

Grain Storage Shortage

By
B. A. Wallace and George R. Shier

Let's look at the grain storage problem facing Ohio farmers. First, is there a problem? If there is, what is the cause of it?

In Ohio there is commercial storage for 52,500,000 bushels of grain. From this, one must allow 15 percent or 7,875,000 bushels for operating space (cleaning, conditioning, handling). On February 16, there were 25,000,000 bushels of grain in commercial storage in Ohio.

This leaves space for only 19,625,000 bushels.

The 1942 Ohio wheat crop is expected to amount to around 42,000,000 bushels and the soybean crop to be about 21,000,000 bushels. All of the soybeans and perhaps 4-5 or 33,000,000 bushels of wheat would normally go into commercial storage. Even if the expected 1,500,000 bushels of barley and 37,000,000 bushels of oats all were stored on the farms and used for feed, there would be 54,000,000 bushels of wheat and soybeans for storage. Less than half that much space is available.

Where will the new grain be stored?

Unless provision is made for farm storage, much of this year's grain will spoil or be wasted. Of course, some could be used as feed but it was raised for human food and for bean oil and meal or cake. Railroad men say that: "Grain dealers have for years used railway cars for storage by shipping grain whether it could be unloaded or not. They can't do that this year." Two central Ohio semi-terminal elevator managers report "We will be filled up with two days' harvest run."

Here is what will probably happen unless the farmers prepare for farm storage:

The local elevators will be filled quickly. The terminal elevators, shortly thereafter. Railroads may refuse to place a car at the disposal of an elevator unless the railroad has assurance that the car can and will be unloaded immediately on arriving at its destination. It seems grain is bound to back up on farms.

Therefore, farmers had better get ready during May and June.

Wheat, and other grains, if sufficiently dry and properly stored, may enable the eligible owner to secure a loan through the AAA and an advance storage payment on wheat of 7 cents a bushel may be secured. For details consult your county AAA office.

INFORMATION ON TIRE AND TUBE QUOTAS BANNED

State Rationing Administrator Harry T. Beckman has issued orders prohibiting county coordinators and local rationing boards from releasing to the press or the public any information on county tire and tube quotas.

Beckman's order followed a communication from John E. Hamm, senior deputy administrator of the Office of Price Administration, who said that announcements covering tire and tube quotas by county coordinators and local rationing boards had served only to confuse the public.

Hamm in his letter to Beckman said:

"We are fully conscious of our responsibility in keeping the people of your state, and the rest of the country, informed about the rationing program. Such information is released continually by our office or where desirable is sent to you as information which may be made public. All other data, however, is confidential and should not be made public."

"This office makes available to the press and the public national and state quotas; however, county quotas are not publicly released by this office, nor are they sent to you as 'information which may be made public.'"

"The rationing administrators and local boards are prohibited, therefore, from releasing to the press or the public any information on county quotas."

Washington Merry-Go-Round

ture, the President seemed disturbed about something.

"Shall we pose with or without our coats on?" he asked, as the photographers were focusing their cameras.

Stambaugh, taking this as a hint, immediately began to peel his coat off.

"No—wait a minute," said the President, and then added with a grin, "Have you by any chance got on suspenders?"

"Why, er, yes, I have," replied Stambaugh, somewhat baffled.

"In that case, I'll put my coat on," said the President. "We'll both wear them. It will make a better picture."

Any member of the American Legion will tell you that Lynn Stambaugh, who hails from Fargo, North Dakota, and has been doing an outstanding job as National Commander, is quick on the uptake. In a flash, he sized up the situation.

Careening a slightly protuberant waistline, the Legionnaire chuckled and replied, "Just as you say, Mr. President."

Note: The President warmly complimented Stambaugh on the Legion's work in training air raid wardens and its highly successful house-to-house war bond campaign, which already has netted over $100,000,000 in purchases of pledges.

ROYALTY ON TOUR

Crown Princess Martha of Norway has only one white hand. The other is blue from shaking hands with 3,000 Norwegian-Americans in Minneapolis. This equals the best Eleanor Roosevelt records.

The Crown Princess accompanied Crown Prince Olav in a whirlwind tour to carry the message of Norway to the U.S.A. In a series of one-night stands, they covered 21 cities in 22 days, and the Crown Prince spoke 50 times.

Whenever the Princess was called upon, she said, "My husband does the talking for the family."

Like a pair of one-night-standers, the Prince and Princess jumped from city to city, spending only five nights in hotels, the others in sleeping cars. They were on display constantly, the Prince wearing the field uniform of a general, with high boots, and a high collar decorated by three silver stars on a gold band.

At Tacoma, Wash., the Prince finished speaking at 8:35 dashed out to catch an 8:40 train. The police commissioner ordered all lights turned red, stopping traffic in the entire city, while the Prince raced to the train. He made it.

At Portland, Ore., Lt. Gen. William S. Knudsen dropped out of the skies in an Army transport, and Princess Martha, whose aunt is the Queen of Denmark, greeted him in Danish. Then Knudsen and the Prince and Princess went into the airport for a soda pop.

When the royal Norwegians were having their hands pumped blue in Minneapolis, a Norwegian woman asked the Prince what she could do to help Norway. "The best way to help Norway," said Prince Olav, "is to help the United States."

WEAVER POSTS $50

Clyde Weaver, East Corwin street, was arrested Tuesday evening by Circleville police on a charge of operating a numbers racket. He posted $50 bond pending hearing of the case.

SALVAGE DRIVE TO BE STAGED NEXT MONDAY

Pickaway county's salvage drive will be held June 1 as planned with many local trucks being obtained for the war drive. Committee in charge of the arrangements has expressed a need for more volunteers to accompany these trucks on their collection tours through this area next Monday. Anyone wishing to aid the program in this way should contact Herman Hill.

Many other Ohio communities have brought their scrap drives to very successful conclusions and it is anticipated that the local effort will bring forth several tons of metals of all types, rags, rubber, and many other articles that are of no value to an individual, but of extreme importance in the defense program.

Persons in the county will be paid for their supply of scrap when it is collected Monday and everyone has been asked to locate his material and have it convenient for collection when the drive is made.

LEGION TO MEET

Howard Hall Post of the American Legion will hold its bi-monthly meeting Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock in Memorial hall. All members have been asked to attend the business session that will be devoted to discussion of plans for the Memorial day program, Saturday. Special caps and other equipment for the legion's police force will also be distributed at this time.

FARM SURVEY TO LEARN FOOD PROGRAM TO BEGIN

COLUMBUS, May 27—A comprehensive survey of every farm in Ohio to determine progress of the food-for-freedom program will begin tomorrow, State AAA Chairman Elmer F. Kruse announced today. The inquiry will be conducted by 6,000 committeemen and may take as long as six weeks.

"We cannot afford to gamble with production of war goods," said Kruse. "The survey will enable us to determine if 1942 goals will be met and it will assist the department of agriculture greatly in setting up 1943 goals."

- 8x12 — 500 BUSHEL CAPACITY $186.50
- 8x14 — 550 BUSHEL CAPACITY $196.50
- 5% Discount for Cash

This building may be financed by a bankable note payable when wheat loan is received. The allowance of 7 cents a bushel for storage of wheat under government loan will help offset the cost of new farm storage buildings. Two years of storage at this rate would pay for the average cost of construction.

Grain Storage Shortage

By B. A. Wallace and George R. Shier

Let's look at the grain storage problem facing Ohio farmers. First, is there a problem? If there is, what is the cause of it?

In Ohio there is commercial storage for 52,500,000 bushels of grain. From this, one must allow 15 percent or 7,875,000 bushels for operating space (cleaning, conditioning, handling). On February 16, there were 25,000,000 bushels of grain in commercial storage in Ohio.

This leaves space for only 19,625,000 bushels.

The 1942 Ohio wheat crop is expected to amount to around 42,000,000 bushels and the soybean crop to be about 21,000,000 bushels. All of the soybeans and perhaps 4-5 or 33,000,000 bushels of wheat would normally go into commercial storage. Even if the expected 1,500,000 bushels of barley and 37,000,000 bushels of oats all were stored on the farms and used for feed, there would be 54,000,000 bushels of wheat and soybeans for storage. Less than half that much space is available.

Where will the new grain be stored?

Unless provision is made for farm storage, much of this year's grain will spoil or be wasted. Of course, some could be used as feed but it was raised for human food and for bean oil and meal or cake. Railroad men say that: "Grain dealers have for years used railway cars for storage by shipping grain whether it could be unloaded or not. They can't do that this year." Two central Ohio semi-terminal elevator managers report "We will be filled up with two days' harvest run."

Here is what will probably happen unless the farmers prepare for farm storage:

The local elevators will be filled quickly. The terminal elevators, shortly thereafter. Railroads may refuse to place a car at the disposal of an elevator unless the railroad has assurance that the car can and will be unloaded immediately on arriving at its destination.

It seems grain is bound to back up on farms.

Therefore, farmers had better get ready during May and June.

Wheat, and other grains, if sufficiently dry and properly stored, may enable the eligible owner to secure a loan through the AAA and an advance storage payment on wheat of 7 cents a bushel may be secured. For details consult your county AAA office.
